Introduction

Local Government in Ireland is big business. It comprises 31 local authorities across the country, with estimated expenditure for 2022, in excess of €6.1 billion. They operate in a complex environment, which has both reserved and executive functions

LA's are multifunctional, delivering over 600 individual services to citizens and interacting with a wide range of stakeholders

It is essential that the executive and the elected members work together to develop, maintain and oversee a set of systems, principals and processes that promotes the efficient use of financial and non-financial resources to deliver quality public services and better outcomes for citizens, in line with principals of good corporate governance

Good Corporate Governance

- ▶ Good corporate governance involves better informed decision making
- ▶ Operating with integrity and high ethical values
- ▶ Being open and transparent
- ▶ Being accountable for the stewardship and control of resources
- ▶ Using those resources to deliver quality public services

Elected Members oversight role

- ▶ Elected members have the preeminent role in local government
- ▶ Create the overall policy framework within which the council's executive operates
- ▶ Play a significant role in oversight, governance and compliance

Under legislative provisions, they:

- ▶ Can require the submission of financial statements
- ▶ Approve Policy Documents
- ▶ Receive reports on the Capital Programme
- ▶ Receive information on business or transactions of the council

- ▶ Obtain a monthly report on the performance of the executive functions
- ▶ Receive specifications and cost estimates of particular works
- ▶ Can require the CE to inform them before performing any specified executive functions
- ▶ Can prohibit the undertaking of new works
- ▶ Can direct that a second legal opinion be obtained
- ▶ Can require that a particular act, matter or thing be done by the chief executive
- ▶ Bring questions and motions to statutory council meetings
- ▶ Authorise the borrowing of money and the disposal of assets

An Example of the oversight role of the Elected Members in the context of the corporate plan

- ▶ Corporate Plan is a 5 year plan developed in consultation and adopted by the elected members

Members oversight

- ▶ An annual service delivery plan must be developed
- ▶ Progress in respect of the corporate plan must be included in the annual report
- ▶ The adoption of the annual service delivery plan and annual report is a reserved function
- ▶ The chief executive presents monthly management reports for the council

National Oversight and Audit Commission (NOAC)

The 2014 Local Government Reform Act made provisions for the establishment of NOAC. Its statutory functions are wide:

- ▶ It is the national independent oversight body for the local government sector
- ▶ Its functions cover all local authority activities
- ▶ It scrutinises the performance generally and the financial performance specifically
- ▶ It supports best practice across the sector
- ▶ It oversees the implementation of national local government policy and public service reform

Local Government Audit Service

- ▶ Statutory function to provide independent scrutiny of the financial stewardship of LA's
- ▶ Provide an opinion on the annual financial statement, not just assurance
- ▶ Contribute to improved standards within the sector
- ▶ Promote good corporate governance
- ▶ Present their finding directly to the audit committee
- ▶ Value for Money Unit

Freedom of Information Act 2014

- ▶ To improve openness and transparency
- ▶ To strengthen accountability
- ▶ Improve the quality of decision making
- ▶ Facilitate effective participation by the public of public bodies

Appeals

- ▶ The right of the public to access information
- ▶ The right to appeal to the Ombudsman
- ▶ The right to appeal through the courts
- ▶ Applications for judicial review can be made on a point of law

Role of Internal Audit

- ▶ Internal Audit is an independent, objective, assurance and consulting activity
- ▶ Provides management and the audit committee, with appropriate assurance in relation to risk management, internal controls and governance systems
- ▶ Operates through a charter
- ▶ Plans are developed, using a risk based approach, which includes a review of:
 - ▶ Policy documents
 - ▶ performance indicators
 - ▶ The budget and the annual financial statement

Role of Internal Audit cont.,

- ▶ The corporate risk register and business unit risk registers
- ▶ Consultation with the senior management team and head of each business unit
- ▶ Consultation with the external auditor and the audit committee
- ▶ Progressively the work of internal audit is viewed as a proactive rather than a reactive
- ▶ Working in partnership with management, to support a culture of compliance
- ▶ Provides assurances to the chief executive and the audit committee, that control systems are adequate
- ▶ Agrees recommendations for improvement in systems and controls

National and Regional Support Networks for Internal Auditors

- ▶ Is the key representative body for internal auditors in local government
- ▶ Champions good practice
- ▶ Provides an effective framework for the discussion of issues, the sharing of knowledge
- ▶ Facilitates collaboration, helps promote the internal audit profession
- ▶ Access to the county and city managers association finance committee

Audit Committee

- ▶ Key role in governance framework
- ▶ Promote public sector accountability
- ▶ Tasked with oversight
- ▶ Provide assurance to the Council
- ▶ Independent and objective in carrying out their duties
- ▶ Uphold high standards of behaviour
- ▶ Assist in fostering an organisational culture that promotes values as espoused in its corporate plan

- ▶ New and emerging areas of operation
- ▶ Areas of significant expenditure
- ▶ Reports or updates on any area relevant to the audit committee's work

e) To review systems that are operated by the local authority for the management of risks

A risk management framework should be in place and consists of:

- ▶ A Risk Management Policy
- ▶ Corporate Risk Register – containing significant risk areas
- ▶ Directorate Risk Registers
- ▶ Business Unit Risk Registers
- ▶ The audit committee should seek assurances that an appropriate framework is in place
- ▶ The risk managers should report to the audit committee on a regular basis

The Audit Committees Annual Report

The audit committee prepare an annual report for the elected members. The report should include:

- ▶ The programme of work carried out by the audit committee in compliance with its statutory functions
- ▶ Any matters in respect of which the audit committee considers that actions or improvements are needed
- ▶ The committee's assessment of its own effectiveness and performance
- ▶ Training needs and challenges or obstacles encountered

Provisions have been made in the Regulations, to allow the Chairperson to address the Council and to provide any clarity the Council may need in relation to the annual report

Conclusion

- ▶ Oversight is an important function of the elected members and a key element of good corporate governance.
- ▶ In addition to the statutory framework in place for the elected members to perform their own oversight role and function, they can also place reliance on:
 - ▶ The audit committee have an independent oversight role in advising the Council on financial reporting processes, internal controls, risk management and audit matters as part of the systematic review of the control environment and governance procedures of the local authority
 - ▶ The internal audit unit has unrestricted access to records and personnel and is charged with carrying out its assurance role, by auditing the operations of the organisation and making recommendations where weaknesses in systems and gaps in controls are identified
 - ▶ NOACs oversight role brings an added dimension of independent scrutiny and oversight to the performance of the local government sector
 - ▶ The local government audit service scrutinises the financial performance of the local authority and also produce value for money reports for the sector
